

you—a submarine! You reverse engines. The 20-mm gun mounted on the sub rotates until it is pointed directly at you.

"Get up in the bow or we will blow you out of the water!" a voice calls in halting English.

If you follow the instructions, turn to page 83.

If you pursue the only possible escape route by diving into the cabin and then running your boat directly toward the shore, turn to page 87.
